Deadline Extended to Apply for Position on City of Eugene Advisory Boards

The City of Eugene has extended the deadline to apply for a position on one of its many boards, committees or commissions. The annual recruitment began January 19 and will conclude on Friday, April 8. The City is seeking motivated volunteers who reflect the diverse backgrounds and interests of the community. Opportunities are available on a variety of groups including advisory committees to the City Council, departmental advisory committees and intergovernmental committees.

The City is recruiting to fill the following vacancies. For some groups, current members whose terms are expiring may apply to be reappointed.

- Budget Committee 2 vacancies
- Civilian Review Board 2 vacancies
- Cultural Services Advisory Committee 5 vacancies
- Human Rights Commission 2 vacancies
- Library Board 2 vacancies
- Metropolitan Wastewater Management Commission 1 vacancy
- Planning Commission 1 vacancy
- Police Commission 4 vacancy
- Public Art Committee 1 vacancy
- Sustainability Commission 4 vacancies
- Toxics Board 2 vacancies
- Whilamut Natural Area Citizen Planning Committee 2 vacancies

Interested persons must complete an application, including supplemental questions specific to the board, commission or committee they are interested in serving on. Eligibility and representation requirements vary for each advisory group.

Applications should be submitted online at <http://ceapps.eugene-or.gov/csboardapplicants/>. Assistance is available by contacting the City Manager's Office at 541-682-5010.

Interviews will take place May 3-5 and the City Council is scheduled to take action on appointments on June 13. Terms officially begin on July 1.

Additional information can be found on the City of Eugene's website, www.eugene-or.gov.
