Mr. Hugh McKinley,
City Manager
City of Eugene
Eugene, Oregon

Dear Mr. McKinley:

In the following pages we present our annual report.

We feel that the report will show evidence of continued progress in the various phases of law enforcement within the City of Eugene.

We appreciate very much the sympathetic interest and cooperation you have shown to us throughout the past year. We would like also to express our appreciation to the Mayor, the City Council, and the other city agencies for their support; particularly during the trying times and situations that took place during the year.

We pledge our best efforts to continue to merit your approval.

Respectfully submitted,

H.A. Ellsworth,
Chief of Police

HAE/mgr

IN MEMORIAM

ASSISTANT CHIEF W.G. CRASE

Former Assistant Chief W.G. Crase passed away on February 9, 1968 after an illness that caused his retirement on February 1, 1968.

Prior to his appointment as a patrolman for the City of Eugene, he was a weather observer at the Eugene airport.

He received his appointment as a patrolman on December 15, 1941. In a very short time, however, he entered the United States Air Force, became an engineer and a gunner. He was involved in a B-29 crash in India that resulted in a partial disability. He received the Purple Heart award. He also received other awards for bravery while a member of the Air Force.

He returned to the Eugene Police Department on August 1, 1945, became a sergeant on August 28, 1946, a lieutenant on June 24, 1947, a captain on September 18, 1950, and then became the Assistant Chief of Police on June 1, 1951.
