

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
City of Eugene, Oregon

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS: Home should be a safe and trustworthy place, but for too many Oregonians it is instead fraught with terror due to domestic violence; and
- WHEREAS: The crime of domestic violence violates an individual's privacy and dignity, security and humanity, due to systematic use of physical, emotional, sexual, economic, and psychological control and abuse to children and the elderly; and
- WHEREAS: Domestic violence is not limited to physical or verbal abuse but includes intimate terrorism (such as isolation, covert control, reproductive coercion, economic and sexual exploitation) and online abuse (such as stalking, humiliation, doxing, rape and death threats) and these forms of terror are often unrecognized by our laws and norms; and
- WHEREAS: Domestic violence affects not only the person being abused but also children, neighbors, friends, family, coworkers, faith communities, and others; seeing or hearing abuse can be particularly terrifying for children and people with trauma histories; and children witnessing violence is recognized as a form of abuse itself; and
- WHEREAS: The triad of forced financial dependence, reproductive abuse, and familial isolation creates monumental barriers to leaving an abusive relationship, and dangerous situations are further exacerbated by worsening economic realities, especially the lack of truly affordable housing; and
- WHEREAS: It is survivors of violence, and the advocates who partner with them daily on safety planning and support measures, to whom we look for guidance on raising awareness of domestic violence, and ultimately working to build community norms of healthy relationships; and
- WHEREAS: Womenspace continues to provide safety, hope and healing to domestic violence survivors of all genders through advocacy and support and focuses on educational prevention and has served thousands of people in Lane County for more than 40 years; and
- WHEREAS: Too many Oregonians have lost their lives due to domestic violence; we remember those women, men, and children who have died and are taking a firm stance to prevent domestic violence; and
- WHEREAS: The impact and the cost of domestic violence is wide-ranging and devastating directly affecting individuals, children and society, in this community, throughout the United States and the world.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lucy Vinis, Mayor of the City of Eugene, Oregon, do hereby proclaim October 2018 to be

“DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH”

in Eugene and urge all people to actively participate in the scheduled activities and programs to work toward eradicating domestic violence, improving victim safety, and holding perpetrators of domestic abuse accountable for their actions against individual victims and our society.
