

For Immediate Release
September 26, 2019

Contact: Sarah-Kate Sharkey, Community Engagement Manager, 541-682-6342, sksharkey@eugene-or.gov

City of Eugene Earns National Accreditation in Parks and Recreation

Mark of distinction recognizes commitment to highest level of service to the community

EUGENE, OR – This week, City of Eugene Parks and Recreation joins the ranks of elite park and recreation agencies across the country by earning accreditation through the Commission for Accreditation of Park and Recreation Agencies (CAPRA) and the National Recreation and Park Association (NRPA). This distinguished accomplishment was awarded during the 2019 NRPA Annual Conference in Baltimore, Maryland.

CAPRA accreditation is the only national accreditation for park and recreation agencies, and is a measure of an agency's overall quality of operation, management and service to the community. This mark of distinction indicates that an agency has met rigorous standards related to the management and administration of lands, facilities, resources, programs, safety and services.

As part of the accreditation process, Eugene Parks and Rec had to demonstrate compliance with 151 recognized standards and document all policies and procedures. Often the process helps identify efficiencies and heighten areas of accountability, all of which translate into higher quality service and operation to benefit the community.

"Receiving the CAPRA accreditation demonstrates that we are meeting the highest professional national standards that exist," Recreation Services Director Craig Smith said. "These standards acknowledge excellence in how our staff meet community needs, in how we ensure public resources and assets are well cared for, and in how we involve the community in strategically planning for the future. We are thrilled to share this honor with our community."

The process for accreditation involves a formal application, self-assessments, a site visit by a team of trained visitors that results in a written report, and a hearing with the commission to grant accreditation. Once accredited, the agency must uphold the standards by submitting an annual report and is reviewed again in five years.

The Commission is comprised of representatives from NRPA, the American Academy for Park and Recreation Administration, the National Association of County Park and Recreation Officials, the International City/County Management Association, the Academy for Leisure Sciences, the Armed Forces Recreation Network and the Council of State Executive Directors.

For more information about CAPRA accreditation, visit www.nrpa.org/CAPRA.

About Eugene Rec

Since 1927, City of Eugene Rec has built social connections and enhanced the wellness and livability of the greater Eugene community. Eugene Rec creates access to transformative activities for youth and adults, leading to growth in confidence, leadership and lifelong success. Eugene Rec programming spans all ages and abilities, with five areas of service: Adaptive, Aquatics, Athletics, Seniors, and Youth and Family. For more info, visit getrec.org.

About Parks and Open Space

Parks and recreation in Eugene is a large and diverse system of beautiful, inspiring places that foster personal community and environmental health. The Parks and Open Space Division strives to protect, enhance and maintain Eugene's 4,780 acres of parks and open spaces for healthy people, community and environment. For more information, visit eugene-or.gov/185/Parks-and-Open-Space.

About the National Recreation and Park Association

The National Recreation and Park Association is a national not-for-profit organization dedicated to ensuring that all Americans have access to parks and recreation for health, conservation and social equity. Through its network of 60,000 recreation and park professionals and advocates, NRPA encourages the promotion of healthy and active lifestyles, conservation initiatives and equitable access to parks and public space. For more information, visit www.nrpa.org. For digital access to NRPA's flagship publication, Parks & Recreation, visit www.parksandrecreation.org.

###